CALL FOR RESEARCH PAPERS ON SERIOUS AND ORGANIZED CRIMES

Centre for Governance Research (CGR) keenly solicits policy-oriented analytical papers on the following five categories of serious and organised crimes in Pakistan:

- Drug trafficking, especially in the present context of Afghanistan situation
- Human smuggling and trafficking; evolving a national strategy
- Illicit financial flows, especially money laundering and terror financing
- Cybercrimes, especially online child abuse
- Illicit firearms and gun running

CGR will award a suitable amount for each paper and print it as policy brief as part of study on serious and organised crime in Pakistan.

Those willing to contribute on any of these areas of serious and organised crimes can submit brief synopsis, research methodology and scope in the next two weeks on the following email address:
